

Art in Your Eye - Student Legacy Project

"Nurturing and showcasing student artists"

Festival at the Batavia Riverwalk August 13 & 14, 2011

STUDENT ARTIST APPLICATION FORM

You also may apply online at: artinyoureye.com/legacy_application.htm

The Student Legacy Project is a juried display of art by students from area high schools and colleges (undergraduate and graduate level). There is no jury fee or display charge for the student artists. Artwork must be brought to Batavia on Friday, August 12th and picked it up at the end of the festival on Sunday, August 14th. Student artists are encouraged to be present and participate for a 2-3 hour shift during the two-day festival. Artwork can be priced and sold during the festival and commission will not be taken. More information about the festival is at: artinyoureye.com

To apply for acceptance into this exhibit, students must be currently (or recently) enrolled in a high school or college. A recommendation from an art teacher/instructor is preferred.
